

Frost Included adds measurable value to organizations by helping them deliver diversity and inclusion systemically.

Stephen Frost is a Global Inclusion and Leadership Expert

Embedding Inclusion into Strategy

Without inclusion, diversity can fail. Stephen offers a powerful, humorous and compelling argument for inclusion, based on empirical evidence from around the world combined with the latest Harvard research. It is a thought provoking, challenging and informative opportunity to refresh the believers and convert the currently unconvinced that inclusion enhances.

In order to be successful and make a real impact, inclusion needs to be central to organizational strategy. It must be fully supported by the CEO and have buy-in from key stakeholders and be central to how your organization operates day to day. Learn how to make this a reality and why inclusion will benefit your organization as a whole.

By attending this session, you will learn how to:

- Position D&I to support the core purpose and impact of the organization.
- Ensure D&I is part of organizational strategy.
- Design diversity and inclusion strategies tailored to the business goals of an organization

PROGRAM FORMAT: From a 45-75 minute keynote with Q & A to a half-day workshop

PERFECT AUDIENCE: Chief Diversity Officers and Human Resource department leaders.